MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Support)

SUBJECT : Security Problems with AEC

l. This Office, together with the Security Office, have been seeking a way to avoid duplication of security investigations for Agency personnel who must have access to Restricted Data. As you may recall, § 145(b) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 gives the Commission or the General Manager authority to waive a security investigation when it is "clearly consistent with the national interest". Since our minimal security requirements equal or exceed those established under their Act, we think there is ample margin for the use of such discretion. Their General Counsel, however, does not agree. This authority has apparently been used
